Spatially inhomogeneous noise in kinetic equations

Abstract: This is based on a joint work with Helge Dietert. I will discuss looking at kinetic equations where the strength of the collision process is spatially dependent. I will talk about how to choose this function determining the strength to maximize the rate of convergence to equilibrium.