

In recent joint work with Valentin Ovsienko we defined q -analogues of real numbers. Our construction is based on a q -deformation of the Farey graph. I will explain the construction and give the main properties. In particular I will mention links with the combinatorics of posets, cluster algebras, Jones polynomials...