Moment maps, multiplicative reduction, and Dirac geometry

Ana Balibanu

1. Abstract

We develop a general approach to reduction along strong Dirac maps, which are a broad generalization of Poisson moment maps. We recover a number of familiar constructions and we give several new reduction procedures, including a multiplicative analogue of Whittaker reduction. This is joint work with Maxence Mayrand.