

O-MINIMALITY AND DIOPHANTINE GEOMETRY

ANDREI YAFAEV

In the recent years there have been some spectacular applications of the theory of o-minimality (a branch of Model Theory) to some problems in Diophantine Geometry. It culminated in the unconditional proof of the Andre-Oort conjecture on the Zariski closure of sets of special points on Shimura varieties.

We will present ideas and methods surrounding this proof.