Approaches to the gamma conjecture
Hiroshi Iritani

The gamma conjecture (in the broad sense) describes how the Gamma class (a non-trivial characteristic class with transcendental coefficients) of a symplectic manifold appears from the quantum cohomology or from periods of its mirrors. In this talk, I will discuss possible approaches to the gamma conjecture.