

INTERSECTION ESTIMATES FOR PLANAR WALKS, RANDOM POLYMERS AND BRANCHING RANDOM WALKS

OFER ZEITOUNI

Random directed polymers are a random of random walks weighted by a random environment. I will describe some recent results concerning the study of partition functions for this model, and their link with intersection of random walks and the study of (slowly varying) branching random walks.