

Painlevé equations in complex function theory

Rod Halburd

In this talk we will see how Painlevé transcendents arise naturally in some problems in complex function theory. In particular we will look at the problem for finding all meromorphic functions for which there is only a finite number of choices for the first few terms in a function's Laurent series expansion whenever the function takes a particular value (or finite set of values).