Extended Mirror Symmetry
Johannes Walcher

I will review the extension of classical (Hodge theoretic/enumerative geometry) mirror symmetry by an open string sector defined in terms of algebraic cycles in the B-model, describe the arithmetic structures that arise, and explain the present understanding and open problems related to their A-model interpretation.