

This will be a progress report on joint work with Dan Loughran, describing how one can obtain upper and lower bounds (of the correct order of magnitude) for the point counting function.