

What happens if I miss the bus to Skye?

We hope that everyone will make it to the bus stop in time but it is important to note that the bus can't wait for long at each stop for people. The journey between Edinburgh and the venue on Skye is long. If we are able to get away from the last bus pick up at the airport at 15.00, we should arrive at the venue by 21.00.

It is important that if you aren't able to get to your appointed bus stop in good time that you contact Jane Walker as soon as possible.

There are a few people driving from Edinburgh to Skye so they may be able to wait a little longer for participants whose journey to Edinburgh has been delayed.

If your journey to Edinburgh on Sunday is significantly delayed you will have to make your own arrangements for accommodation in Edinburgh on Sunday night and then travel on to Skye on Monday.
