

Talk Title: A database of modular curves

Abstract: I will discuss some of the arithmetic, algebra, and algorithms involved in constructing a large database of modular curves, with a particular focus on arithmetic invariants that can be computed using purely algebraic methods, provided one has an efficient algorithm for doing so.