

On eigenvalue bounds for the independence number of graph powers and an application to coding theory

Aida Abiad

Eindhoven University of Technology, Ghent University and Vrije Universiteit Brussel

Abstract

In this talk two new eigenvalue bounds on the independence number of graph powers will be presented. We will see how to use polynomials and mixed-integer linear programming in order to optimize such bounds. Also, an application of the new bounds to coding theory will be discussed.